NEW WOOD VIEW PARENT GOVERNOR

Phillipa Harrison

I was born in Whitleigh in the early '70's. I went to both the infant and primary schools. Our son attends the primary and was at nursery prior, even though we live out of the area. I believe in the ethics of the school, the head and teachers. I look forward to becoming more involved and supportive in the future.

Bedtime Story Event

On Wednesday 16th February, Whitleigh Primary School, in conjunction with the campus library, organized a 'Bedtime Story' evening. Year 1 and 2 children came to the library at 6 o'clock in their pyjamas, carrying their favourite teddy. They all snuggled up ready for some bedtime stories, chosen and read by the KS1 teachers, Mrs Wilkins, Ms Havard, Miss Seth, Mrs Burke. Even Mrs Lloyd read a story! Hot chocolate and biscuits were enjoyed by all and you could hear a pin drop as "The Gruffalo", "Burglar Bill", "Giraffes Can't Dance" and other bedtime favourites were performed. It was so successful that the event will be repeated soon – watch this space...!

Sir John Hunt

University of Plymouth's Community Open Day and Lord Mayor's Day Children's Parade

Recently Stiltskin Creative Arts & Theatre Company returned to our College and worked with Mrs Long and Miss Wilkes - Art and Design teachers, support staff and Year 10 BTEC Art group. The theme of this year's Parade celebrated the Scott of the Antarctic Centenary with our very own "March of the Penguins." Together they have created fantastic giant puppets for the University of Plymouth's Community Open Day and Lord Mayor's Day Children's Parade on 21st May 2011. Supported by 100 penguins... yes 100... fashioned by eight primary school pupils. Our students mastered the puppeteering skills learned here at Sir John Hunt, to parade Scott's team to the crowds.

Year 11 Leavers' Prom 2011 - Future Inn

Despite relentless rain on the evening of Friday 24th June, Sir John Hunt Community Sports College went all things 'Hollywood' for their Leavers' Prom.

They arrived to spotlights and a red carpet and a massive welcome from fellow students, parents, pupils, friends and staff.

The boys turned into young men in their wonderful attire and the girls went all out with the glamorous dresses, tiaras and fabulous hairstyles!

We were not disappointed either by the glamorous arrivals which included limos, Hummers, buses, cars and a noisy grand entrance by the Aquila Bikers.

During the evening the students had to nominate their peers for certain categories and following a swift collation of the results we held a mini Oscar ceremony. The winners were chosen well!

Tepees and totems in day on the prairies

The week of Native American customs and culture at Woodlands included traditional stories, cookery, making totem poles and dream catchers and planting decorated kayaks with plants and herbs.

A huge tepee decorated with hand and foot prints and tracks made from wheelchair tyres was built outside.

Donkeys from the Elizabeth Svendsen Trust, Ivybridge, roamed the wide open plains of the school grounds and were petted by the children.

A celebration of the pupils' work was held on the final day, with friends, families and colleagues.
